For nearly twenty years George Eisenberg has met the needs of clients in retail, wholesale, property, construction, and life insurance. His certification in Long Term Care for the last decade has enabled him to provide clients with solutions to their long-term needs while protecting their assets.

Proactive and responsive, George has the experience and expertise to advise and counsel in multi-lines of insurance. Consistently a top producer, George and his seasoned support staff are a credentialed team that is committed to providing value and protection to those they serve.

A native of the Bay Area, George owned and operated a successful group of footwear stores in San Francisco for the fifteen years prior to his insurance career. Business ownership, combined with his experience in the fields of manufacturing and wholesale, gives him a unique insight into the needs of his business clients.
